

Paul Tonacci
NJSomm
732.567.1551
paul.tonacci@gmail.com
648 N. Albany Ave, Atlantic City, NJ 08401

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE 6/28/17

ASWA Brings Award-Winning East Coast Wines to New Jersey on August 15

Event to be Held in Rutgers University Agricultural Research & Extension Center

WHO: The Atlantic Seaboard Wine Association (ASWA) is bringing the best wines from their renown, annual competition, to South Jersey for this special event. The ASWA is the only association of this kind in the country to focus on growing and developing the industry on the East Coast by sharing wines, ideas and industry contacts through unique events; its competition is only open to winery submissions from those located on the East Coast of the US, similarly.

These events - highlighting the state of the East Coast wine industry - have taken place in New York, Virginia, California and elsewhere but this will be the first time the ASWA will be featured in New Jersey. Present at this event will be New Jersey grape growers and winemakers, board members of ASWA, retail and restaurant professionals, wine and food writers and bloggers and other industry affiliates. This event has been jointly organized by Paul Tonacci - ASWA board member, Dan Ward - Extension Agent of Rutgers University and Grant Crandall - President of ASWA and Tom Cosentino - Executive Director of the Garden State Wine Growers Association (GSWGA).

This event is jointly sponsored by 1892 Chocolate and Villa Barone Restorante Italiano.

WHAT: Taste and discuss the best wines from East Coast producers for the first time in NJ

WHERE: Rutgers AG Research & Extntn - 121 Northville Rd, Bridgeton, NJ 08302

WHEN: Tues, August 15, 5-8pm

RSVP: Paul Tonacci - NJSomm, 732-567.1551 paul.tonacci@gmail.com